INSTITUTIONAL VALUES AND BEST PRACTICES

7.1.8 Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and other diversities.

Cultural Diversity

Holly Celebrations:

An ancient Hindu festival, which later became popular among non-Hindu communities as well, Holi heralds the arrival of spring after winter. It signifies the victory of good over evil and is celebrated as a day of spreading happiness and love. The festival is also celebrated as thanksgiving for good harvest.

Cultural Celebrations:

Cultural events help to develop the skills of cooperation and communication. They give the opportunity to express emotions and to enrich one's own social experiences that is the precondition of the formation of the deserving citizens. Cultural celebrations foster respect and open-mindedness for other cultures. Celebrating our differences, as well as our common interests, helps unite and educate us. To understand other's perspectives, to broaden our own, and to fully experience and educate ourselves.

Regional Diversity

Our KSRCE students Faculty and staff members from various states were performing sports, cultural events and It refers to the differentiation of various communities, gender, ethnicity and more. For instance, India has great regional diversity. The country has mountains, sea coasts, deserts, plain areas and more. This is why it makes India a very regionally diverse country. Unity in diversity is very important for a country like India. If unity exists among the people, it becomes impossible to disintegrate the nation and its people. This helps in maintaining peace, harmony, and prosperity in a country.
